OSLER FAMILY PAPERS

VOLUME I

LETTERS OF MARY OSLER

LETTERS OF EDWARD OSLER, SR.

LETTERS OF HENRY BATH, SR.

BUSINESS PAPERS OF EDWARD OSLER, SR.
AND HENRY BATH, SR.

NOTE

THE letters of grandfather and grandmother and the early letters of father and of mother, and many of the other papers, came from the Brook Street house, Falmouth, which was occupied by aunt Lizzie.

The volumes are to be kept in a fire-proof safe and are in the custody of Mr. Justice Osler and Sir Edmund Osler. After their death they pass to the care of Henry Smith Osler and Gordon Osler. Subsequently, to ensure safe keeping, and that all members of the family could have access to them, the volumes should go to one of the public Libraries, preferably that of Toronto.

FEATHERSTON OSLER.
EDMUND BOYD OSLER.
CHARLOTTE ELIZABETH GWYN.
FRANCIS LLEWELLYN OSLER.
WILLIAM OSLER.

October 1914.

May 1941. The five volumes have now been permanently deposited by Mr Gordon Osler in the Library of Trinity College, (University of) Toronto

It has been endorsed in W.O.'s hand as being from Powell, E.O.'s brother-in-law and the 1st captain under whom F.L.Osler sailed. But it is signed by George Bourn, the parson, who is mentioned in letter 68. Powell's name was William (letter 17). W.W.F. 1935

[1] The Rev. Edward Lake, from whom father had his second name, and after whom his third son was named, lived at Worcester from 1806 until his death, December 2, 1843, as minister of the Countess of Huntingdon's Mission Church. He interested himself specially in young men, and was a prominent member of the Church of England Missionary Society, to which, it is stated, he left his valuable library.

[2] He was son of uncle Edward, a young man of great promise, who died shortly after these letters were written.

[3] Richard was father's youngest brother.
